

Author's Bio

Dara is a wife and a mother of two. Her life began in church. Being the youngest of eleven and a preacher's daughter, Dara overcame abandonment, childhood abuse, and teen pregnancy. Never knowing the narratives and the genealogies in the Bible, she began a committed effort to learn God's Word. Her passion for the Word of God grew as she explored the Scriptures. God gave her symbols to unlock the genealogies in the Bible, which strengthen her connection to His Word. As a faithful church member, she helped global ministries such as Operation Christmas Child and served the community by taking food baskets to her local inner city. Dara has worked with LeSea Global (now Family Broadcasting) as a part of Feed the Hungry. Her international best-selling Bible Study Series "Meditating in God's Word" walks through the Bible, highlighting the benefits of reading God's Word every day. She has a passion for sharing God's Word through simple Bible Study discussions with individuals from all walks of life. Dara's desire and purpose are for people to be encouraged in their relationship with God by meditating in His Word. She is an alumna of Kentucky State University with a B. A. in Liberal Studies. She is a professional speaker and well-sought-after Bible Study teacher who connects Old Testament narratives and genealogies to modern, everyday living. Her unique approach to Scripture is bravely insightful and creatively captivating for everyday practical use throughout life's journey. To learn more visit DaraVRose.com
