

Bio

Dara is a wife and a mother of two. Her life began in church. Being the youngest of eleven and a preacher's daughter, Dara overcame abandonment, childhood abuse and a teen age pregnancy.

She graduated high school in Cleveland, OH and attended college in Kentucky. After earning her degree in Liberal Studies. She became a stay at home mom for almost a decade.

Never knowing the narratives and the genealogies in the Bible, she began a committed effort to learn God's Word.

Her passion for the Word of God grew as she explored the Scriptures. God gave her symbols to unlock the genealogies in the Bible which strengthen her connection to His Word.

As a faithful church member, she helped global ministries such as Operation Christmas Child and served the community by taking food baskets to her local inner city.

Most recently Dara worked with LeSea Global as a part of Feed the Hungry. Her Bible Study Series for Women "Meditating in God's Word" walks women through the Bible highlighting the benefits of reading God's Word every day. She has a passion for sharing God's Word through simple Bible Study discussions with women of all walks of life. Dara's desire and purpose are for women to be encouraged in their relationship with God by meditating in His Word.
